THE ROMAN RULE

• First scan the beginning page of the section: Look at pictures, read the words, think about the chapter ahead.

• From the first page of the actual reading, copy the heading that is the chapter title, then copy down the headings and the entries, "Main Idea," "Why it Matters Now," "Terms and Names," in your notebook.

• Then scan the whole section reading subheadings, bold words, maps and looking at pictures etc.

• Read the questions in the Section Assessment.

• Then go back and carefully read the whole section.

• Now answer the assigned questions in full sentences. All work should be on the same page in your notebook.

THE ROMAN RULE

• First scan the beginning page of the section: Look at pictures, read the words, think about the chapter ahead.

• From the first page of the actual reading, copy the heading that is the chapter title, then copy down the headings and the entries, "Main Idea," "Why it Matters Now," "Terms and Names," in your notebook.

• Then scan the whole section reading subheadings, bold words, maps and looking at pictures etc.

• Read the questions in the Section Assessment.

• Then go back and carefully read the whole section.

• Now answer the assigned questions in full sentences. All work should be on the same page in your notebook.